recommendation is that you sell your collection as a collection.

Are Hardy Boys books still popular? Worldwide, over 70 million copies of Hardy Books have been sold. A number of critics have tried to explain the reasons for the characters' longevity. One explanation for this continuing popularity is that the Hardy Boys are simple wish fulfillment.

What grade level is The Hardy Boys? The Hardy Boys books are geared mostly toward children between the ages of 8 and 12, although some older children may also find the books of interest. The original series of books have been rewritten over the years to keep the boys current for today's children.

Do The Hardy Boys have romance? This is the first series in which Frank and Joe are regularly single (not dating Callie Shaw and Lola Morton, as they did in the previous series), and have different love interests from book to book. Frank becomes nervous around teenage girls, even though they are attracted to him more in this series than any other.

What is the moral of The Hardy Boys? Perhaps the best lesson learned from the Hardy Boys adventures, in addition to a love of reading which eventually developed into a love of learning, was a sense of cooperation and pride in acquiring about 40 books with the help of my brother.

Are Hardy Boys books scary? These storylines are not cautionary in tone. The kids do get into dangerous situations, but ultimately escape mortal danger unharmed (and largely unaffected).

Why did The Hardy Boys break up? The duo split up afterward as Jeff began a storyline with The Undertaker, while Matt was relegated to working on Heat. In the storyline, Matt then attacked Jeff due to jealousy of Jeff getting opportunities, including a match for the Intercontinental Championship.

Is The Hardy Boys worth reading? I would recommend Hardy Boys series to everyone because they are full of action, mystery and some great characters with powerful storylines. It's been years, since I read some of those books. But they were attention holding great! But, some of their mystery solving adventures were, simple to figure out.

Do girls read Hardy Boys? Answer and Explanation: Every Hardy Boys book is for anyone who is interested enough in the topic to read it. The Hardy Boys books were originally written for boys, as they were first published in the 1920s when gender roles were much more defined.
