What does Joyce Meyer say about emotions? If we continue to let our emotions rule over us, there's no way we'll ever be the person we were meant to be. Of course, none of us will ever be totally rid of emotions, but we must learn to manage and control them—not let them control us.

What does Eckhart Tolle say about emotions? The deeper emotions are not really emotions at all but states of Being. Emotions exist within the realm of opposites. States of Being can be obscured, but they have no opposite. They emanate from within you as the love, joy, and peace that are aspects of your true nature.

What are the four core emotions? There are four kinds of basic emotions: happiness, sadness, fear, and anger, which are differentially associated with three core affects: reward (happiness), punishment (sadness), and stress (fear and anger).

What is a famous quote about emotions? “Your emotions are the slaves to your thoughts, and you are the slave to your emotions.” “What worries you, masters you.” “Feelings are something you have; not something you are.” “The most important decision you make is to be in a good mood.”

How to let emotions move through you?

What is the most purest emotion? Love, fear, sadness and anger. Love is happiness at its most intense. It is the most positive, perhaps the purest, emotion we can feel.

What emotion is behind anger? Anger is often a reaction to and distraction from inner suffering—feelings such as sadness, powerlessness, shame, anxiety, inadequacy, and isolation. Anger can be both an outgrowth of, and meaningful distraction, from the intense pain of underlying depression.

Which is the master emotion? Shame is the most powerful, master emotion. It's the fear that we're not good enough.
