When the Rain Stops Falling: A Play Script Analysis

What is "When the Rain Stops Falling"?

"When the Rain Stops Falling" is an award-winning play script written by Andrew Bovell in 1999. It is a complex and multi-layered story that explores themes of family, loss, and the passage of time.

What is the plot of the play?

The play follows three generations of the Melbourne-based Price family over a period of several decades. It begins in 1959, when Gabriel Price leaves his wife and two children to pursue a forbidden love affair. This act has far-reaching consequences for the family, as his absence triggers a cycle of broken relationships and unhealed wounds.

Who are the main characters?

The play features a vast cast of characters, each with their own unique perspective on the events that unfold. Key characters include:

- Gabriel Price: The patriarch of the family, who leaves his family for another woman
- Elizabeth Price: Gabriel's wife, who is left to raise their children alone
- Michael Price: Gabriel and Elizabeth's eldest son, who struggles to overcome his father's abandonment
- Rose Price: Michael's wife, who provides a glimmer of hope amid the family's turmoil
- Matilda Price: Gabriel and Elizabeth's youngest daughter, who grapples with the weight of her family's history

What are the play's themes?

"When the Rain Stops Falling" explores a number of complex themes, including:

- The enduring impact of family relationships
- The consequences of betrayal and abandonment
- The interplay between past and present
- The search for meaning and connection in the face of loss

What makes the play unique?

One of the most striking features of "When the Rain Stops Falling" is its non-linear structure. The play jumps back and forth in time, revealing the events of the past and their impact on the present. This fragmented structure creates a sense of mystery and suspense, as the audience is gradually piecing together the puzzle of the family's history.
